The college is also very particular that the students imbibe appropriate core universal values like truth, honesty, integrity and mutual understanding. For the last few decades the college has been shaping thousands of young women into highly dynamic, self-confident and responsible citizens. It is noteworthy that many of our students become the first graduates in their families. Serving the cause of social justice ensuring equity, and increasing access to higher education are ways by which the institution contributes to national development. The college has indeed been doing much to uplift the young women of Tirunelveli, Kanyakumari, Tuticorin, and Virudhunagar Districts in Tamil Nadu. The physically challenged students are provided computers with voice recorders, infrastructure and restrooms specially designed for them. Seminars, cultural and sports are conducted exclusively for them to exhibit their talents and skills.
