Social Responsibility:

The Programme initiated by the government scheme “ILLAM THEDI KALVI” aims to foster reading habits and writing skills among school students in rural and semi-rural areas. Our department student, ESAKKITHAAL.K, has involved in social responsibility activity and extended her support to educate and upgrade the communication and social skills of these school students, as well as 20 adults. This is a great initiative to support education and literacy in the community, especially during the post-coronavirus period.

ESAKKITHAAL.K deserves the credit for training illiterates and dropout adults. She has done a tremendous job and has helped them become more self-reliant. As a result, the adults were able to complete the government-conducted examination.

Innovative Learning:

ROLE PLAY:

Our department conducted a mock interview for students to help them overcome the fear they may face in real interview and provide guidance on how to succeed

GROUP DISCUSSION:

Our department regularly conducts group discussions for our students to improve their communication and interpersonal skills, as well as develop their lateral and critical thinking abilities

MIME:

Our department conducted a MIME on the topic of time management, which encourages students and provides them with an opportunity to practice communicating in face-to-face interactions. This helps students to understand learning better.
